

Additional requirements under the Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Regulations may apply.
 If the Province of Newfoundland and Labrador is the final destination, additional requirements may apply (see Section 3.6).

End use		Origin of the regulated articles		Documentation Required (X)
				Phytosanitary Certificate (S. 2.3)	Import Permit (S. 2.4)	Movement Certificate (S. 2.5)	Certification of the state of origin (S. 2.6)	Vehicle Cleanliness (S. 2.7)	Compliance Agreement (S. 2.9)
Import	All	From all locations (countries or states) other than the continental U.S. and Canada. (S. 3.1)			X <sup>1</sup>
	All	From states in the continental U.S. that are not known to be infested with any of the pests listed in Section 1.3, or from non-regulated areas within states in the continental U.S. that are only infested with potato cyst nematodes (PCN). (S. 3.2)					X
	Direct Consumption	From states in the continental U.S. that are known to be infested with at least one of the pests listed in Section 1.3, with the exclusion of potato cyst nematodes (PCN). (S. 3.3) Select the applicable option:
		a) Potato tubers treated with a sprout inhibitor, commercially packaged in containers of 22.7 kg (50 lb) or less, and meeting U.S. #1 grade requirements. (S. 3.3.1.1)					X <sup>2</sup>
		b) Potato tubers graded and commercially packaged in containers of 22.7 kg (50 lb) or less, within 30 days following harvest, and meeting U.S. #1 grade requirements. (S. 3.3.1.2)					X <sup>3</sup>
	Processing Repacking	c) Potato tubers commercially packaged in container greater than 22.7 kg (50 lb) and meeting U.S. #1 grade requirements. (S. 3.3.1.3)			X		X <sup>4</sup>
d) Potato tubers destined for packing/repacking or processing. (S. 3.3.2)			X		X <sup>5</sup>	X <sup>6</sup>	X
Direct Consumption ONLY	e) Potato tubers produced in a pest-free area or pest-free place of production. (S. 3.3.3)		X <sup>7</sup>
	From potato cyst nematode-regulated areas in the continental U.S. (S. 3.4) Potato tubers commercially packaged in containers of 22.7 kg (50 lb) or less. (S. 3.4.1) The importation of potato tubers in packages exceeding 22.7 kg (50 lb) is PROHIBITED.		X <sup>8</sup>
Domestic	Direct Consumption	From areas in Canada that are known to be infested with at least one of the pests listed in Section 1.3. (S. 3.5)
		Potato tubers washed, treated with a sprout inhibitor and commercially packaged in containers of 22.7 kg (50 lb) or less (S. 3.5.1)				X			X
Processing Repacking	Potato tubers destined for processing or repacking (S. 3.5.2)				X			X	